

Useful Websites, Resources and Additional Support During School Closures

Below are a list of websites offering free resources, support and engaging activities to do with your child whilst learning from home.

BBC Bitesize is always free and has videos, lessons, and games covering the whole curriculum. There will also be 3 hours of primary school programming every weekday on the CBBC channel from Monday 11th January.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize>

Twinkl will be offering lots of free resources, including those which will accompany the BBC Bitesize live lessons on their Home Learning Hub, available from next Monday 11th January.

<https://www.twinkl.co.uk/blog/here-to-help-you-digitally-teach-01-05-21>

The TTS group have created home learning booklets for EYFS, KS1 and KS2 which you can download free.

<https://www.tts-group.co.uk/home+learning+activities.html>

Teacher's Pet Home Learning Hub is another site offering lots of free printables for download across a range of subjects.

<https://tpet.co.uk/home-learning-hub/>

Oxford Owl provides free ebooks for children of primary age.

<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/>

Pobble is an online writing platform. They post a free picture each day with prompts for discussion and writing. <https://www.pobble365.com/>

Phonics Play is once again offering free membership during school closures. Follow the link to read more and get the free login details.

<https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/>

PE with Joe sessions will be available again on Joe Wicks' official YouTube channel at 9am, going live on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, starting Monday 11th January.

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCAxWIXTOiEJo0TYlRfn6rYQ>

Mylene's Music Klass will also return with more musical video lessons with celebrity musician Mylene Klass on her official YouTube channel.

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCQh2wgJ5tOrixYBn6jFXsXQ>

Go Noodle is used lots in school and is a brilliant website full of videos and activities for you to learn and copy at home! They have Zumba, dances, songs, mindfulness activities, brain trainers, yoga and lots more! You need to make an account to access all of these videos but it is completely FREE!

<https://app.gonoodle.com/>